Balandra Dyanel Lancea Estillore was a student of East Spring Secondary School from 2018 to 2021.

Dyanel is a highly dependable individual who can be trusted to discharge her duties competently. She displays a steadfast perseverance whenever she is faced with challenges in her studies and co-curricular activities, and has never been known to give up easily. At the same time, Dyanel exudes a warm and effervescent personality, which endears her to her peers and teachers alike. She possesses an ease with people and a genuine sense of empathy. Dyanel's easy-going personality, coupled with a witty sense of humour, has allowed her to establish a strong network of friends.

As a learner, Dyanel has also shone as a well-read, inquisitive and intellectual individual. She displays a flair for languages and the Humanities, excelling particularly in critical thinking tasks such as debates and role-play. Dyanel enjoyed bouncing off ideas with group members and was always open to leading and presenting group discussions. Many appreciated her self-confidence and lively participation during groupwork. At the same time, Dyanel is known for her strategic approach towards mastering her subjects and for her strong work ethic. All this clearly makes Dyanel a quality individual to work with.

Dyanel was an active member of the Netball team from 2018 to 2021 and a member of the team's Executive Committee from 2020 to 2021. She displayed sportsmanship and developed a deep camaraderie with her team members. Leading by example and always with a fun-loving spirit, Dyanel was nurturing and patient in guiding junior members during training. In recognition of her sporting talent, she was selected to represent the school at the National School Games (East Zone) Netball Championships in 2018, 2019 and 2021. She also represented the school to compete in the Deloitte Pesta Sukan Carnival (B Division) in 2019 and in the Springfield Netball Carnival (B Division) in 2020, and clinched Third Position.

Dyanel is always proactive and resourceful in rallying her peers to contribute effectively to school events. As Head of Communications of the Sports Leader Executive Committee, she completed her duties with firmness and integrity. Dyanel also contributed unstintingly to the community. In 2021, she co-led the Executive Committee of the Netball team in carrying out a Values-In-Action (VIA) project which saw her team mates crafting appreciation boards and necessities to send to 'It's Raining Raincoats' organisation, especially during that period of time when they really needed them. Other VIA projects that Dyanel actively participated in include Project Sphere in 2019 where her team spent a day engaging with the residents of St Luke's Hospital, GetActive! SG Team Nila project where she acquired knowledge on the importance and benefits of the spirit of volunteering, as well as the Plastic Recycling Project organised by the school Environmental Committee where she contributed to the school-wide efforts of recycling single-use plastic food containers. These varied VIA projects have helped to develop Dyanel's sense of civic-mindedness and self-empowerment to contribute generously to society.

Dyanel was also an active member of her class. She was the Head of Administration of her class in 2020 and 2021. In discharging her responsibilities, Dyanel was always prompt and effective in rallying her classmates according to each of their strengths to complete class-based projects such as setting up the class noticeboards and recycling bin. As a Sports Leader, she helped in coordinating the events during the Sports Day in 2019. She also contributed significantly to inter-class sporting events, including the ACES Day inter-class basketball competition in 2018 as well as Cross Country in 2018 and 2019 when she clinched First Position in both years.

Dyanel has demonstrated great zest for life in her keen sense of personal direction and her ability to balance all her responsibilities as a student. The school is confident of the value that Dyanel will bring to any institution that she works with in future.
